SAGITTA

Suffield High, Suffield High, you're the fairest school to me.

Suffield High, Suffield High, you're the best that e're could be.

With your colors blue and white, we will always dare the right.

May our deeds proclaim thy might Thy Suffield High.

WORLD PEACE . . .

As seniors we will soon be venturing forth into a vast changing world filled with tension and strife. Born in the shadows of a world war, we have lived amidst the insecurities of a cold war. We, the future leaders of the

SUFFIELD HIGH SCHOOL
SUFFIELD, CONNECTICUT

IN APPRECIATION

Left to right: Mr. Walat, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Hughes, Mr. Eisold

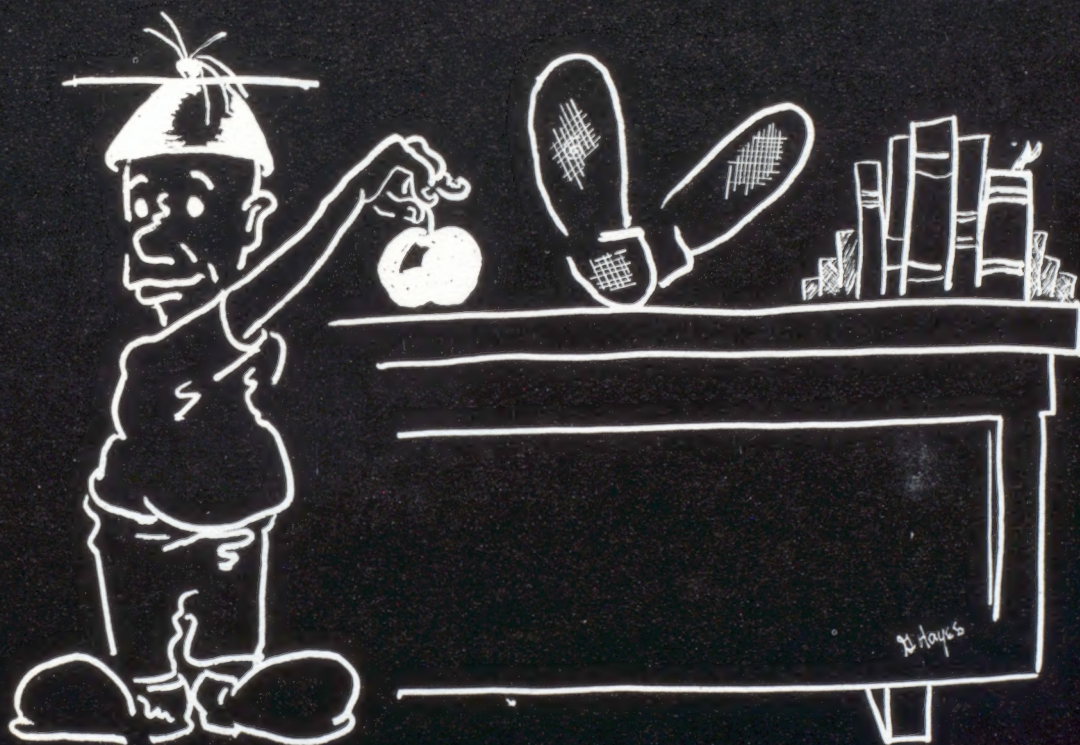

We, the class of nineteen hundred and sixty-four, have seen a past filled with fond memories. These memories have been created in part by the diligent assistance of our advisors; Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Fuller, Mr. Walat, Mr. Eisold and our former advisors Mrs. Hess and Mr. Lester. They have spent many hours with us helping to solve our problems, giving us advice, consoling us in our failures, and praising us in our achievements. We realize we can never repay the debt which we owe to our advisors. It is to them that we now wish to express our utmost appreciation.

IN 1960 WE WERE . . .

. . . Young in years and green in judgement as we began our Freshman year.

In our Sophomore year Raye began his career as President and his nose began to grow. The other officers were:
Vice President: Pam Washburn
Secretary: Susan Duckrow
Treasurer: Pat Valinskus

For the first time class competition was introduced as part of the annual Pep Rally to heighten the excitement. Through our vigorous efforts of class support and eye-catching decorations, we achieved the first of our many successes.

Then in November our daily routine was interrupted for one of the highlights of our Junior Year—our trip to the United Nations. We will all agree that it was an eventful and impressive day.

Again that fall our basketball season
began with the Pep Rally. Competition was keen among the classes, but

Class Officers

President: Tommy Kaplan
Vice President: Jo Linda Romano
Secretary: Susan Duckrow
Treasurer: Pat Valinskus

Although bouffant hair-dos and pointed shoes were in style, we went against the fashion trends of the world and sold sweatshirts. We increased school spirit among the classes by selling pennants.

April showers bring May flowers and so we sponsored an April Showers Hop to bring out all the Wall Flowers.

Peanuts, popcorn,
and candy, candy,
candy!! Mrs. Leland's chocolate bars made the scene as our big money-making deal of the year.

Our Junior year found Raye once again as our president with Tom Kaplan as Vice President, Josh Eisold as Secretary, and Pat Valinskus as Treasurer.

Remember the day everyone in town had the best desserts imaginable? You guessed it! That was the day of our food sale. We decided that instead of selling something in school, we would treat the town and show off our abilities as cooks as well as scholars. We are glad to say it was a glorious success!

under the guiding hands of Dee Rapport and John Casinghino we succeeded in winning the competition for the second year in a row!

May 25 found us departing for that beautiful land of Hawaii, for our Junior Prom. All the worries of the days before vanished as our nerves were soothed by the music of Bill Robbins Orchestra. The Hawaiian Sunset came to a glamorous climax with Laurie Woods being crowned as queen. In her court were Sue Duckrow, Pat Valinskus, Dottie Bialomyza, Sue Prekop, Dorothy Jackson, Carolyn Mnich, Cyndy Roberts, and Pam Washburn. Laurie was presented with a dozen yellow roses and the court received authentic Hawaiian leis.

The year was off to a successful start with our magazine drive. We extend a special thanks to our top salesmen — Jonathan Lyman, Tommy Kaplan, Brad Hamel, and Bruce Root, for helping to make it such a success.

Again the basketball season was greeted by the Pep Rally.

The school spirit was tremendous and the noise overwhelming! With the backboard adorned by a great wildcat and each student wearing his '64 beanie, the great unity and support of our class was rewarded when we heard Mr. Brown announce that this year's winner was one which would never win again — who else could it be except us! For the third time in a row victory was ours. Thus we established a precedent which other classes will find hard to beat.

We were proud to have seven Senior boys on the basketball team. Lee Simon, Mark Rowell, Bobby Flynn, Rich Gibson, Dan Viets, Raye Mandirola, and Artie Merrill all helped spur the team on to victory. The team finished its regular season with a 10-6 record.

Cheering the boys on to victory were Cecily Leel, Susie Duckrow, Wendy Firtion, Marcia Cowles, Pat Valinskus, Ellen Lanati and Josh Eisold — Captain.

Our pride was extended to another member of our class — Howie Orr — who made All State Band.

We were all proud to have Sue Duckrow and Jo-Linda Romano representing us at Laurel Girls' State; with Mark Rowell and David Berry at Nutmeg Boys' State.

Finally the big year came and at last we found ourselves as Seniors.

Raye Mandirola was, for the third year, our president, Jimmy Samsel our Vice-President, Josh Eisold our secretary, and Pam Washburn our treasurer.

Early in the fall the new members were inducted into the National Honor Society. Jo-Linda Romano headed the ceremony initiating Sue Duckrow, Connie Slater, Martha Fairman, Teddy Andersen, Dorian Love, Cecily Leel, Dorothy Gonsior, Justine Parsons, Linda Realini, Dorann Rapport, and Wendy Firtion into the Society.

"In The Mood Of Wintertime" was the theme of our Senior Ball. With Wendy Firtion and Brad Hamel supervising the decorations, we turned the gym into a dark, romantic, star-filled evening. Cecily Leel reigned as queen and in her court were Dee Rapport, Sue Prekop, Laurie Woods, Mary Bragg, Marilyn Kope, and Pat Valinskus.

Finally with the big day close at hand, our banquet was held. Only days later we found ourselves making our last trip up the stairs of the stage to receive our diplomas. A big world awaits us outside, but many happy memories will stay inside us to be cherished in the years ahead.

CLASS WILL

We, the illustrious Class of 1964, do hereby bequeath the following:

To the Administration, we leave the four years of experience they have gained from working with us.

To the teachers, we leave a whole summer to recuperate.

To the Juniors, we leave our athletic ability.

We leave the Sophomores with the best looking girls in the school.

We leave the Freshmen our ability to win pep rallies.

Theodore Andersen leaves a seat on the Soccer Bench to anyone who wants it.

Joyce Beaulieu leaves Suffield hoping never to return.

David Berry leaves Brad Hamel to the girls.

John Berube leaves all his shirts that hang out to the faculty.

Dorothy Bialomyza leaves Mrs. Clymer with her unforgettable Business Law classes.

Howard Blaisdell leaves Lindi to Terry, to watch over.

Charlene Bouffard leaves the Driver Ed car and Mr. Fuller in one piece.

Mary Bragg leaves bragging.

Marcia Cannon leaves "Dear Murphy" to anyone who thinks it's easy to give advice.

Joan Case leaves legally.

Henry Champagny leaves the name Henry to anyone who wants it.

Joan Chiles leaves the slivers from the stage in her dancing feet.

Joy Clark leaves three more Clarks for Suffield to handle.

Dennis Colson leaves his T-square and pencil to anyone who can use them.

Marcia Cowles leaves her buoyancy to Ronnie Zenisky who really needs a lift.

Walter Dabkowski leaves his guitar to Elizabeth Wisiewski.

Deanna Denis leaves Mr. Magno's French classes to anyone who thinks he can skip more often.

Susan Duckrow leaves the Extra-curricular Activities Committee baffled.

Martha Eisold leaves her basketball to Mr. A.

Martha Fairman bequeaths her birds-nest hairdos to Mr. Regalbuti who is still looking for the birds.

Wendy Firtion leaves her organization of winning pep rallies to any class who can tie our record.

Bobby Flynn leaves his temper to Bobby Samuel.

Richard Gibson leaves his golfing ability to the next hacker.

James Glaeser leaves Sonny Liston to Mr. Ouillette.

William Glynn is stingy; he's taking everything with him.

Margaret Godfrey leaves her dimples to anyone who has knees to match.

Dorothy Gonsior leaves her shorthand notes to anyone who can read them.

Shirley Gonsior leaves all her typing errors for someone else to make.

Michael Grabowski leaves Mr. Bryant without a valuable asset.

Stanley Grigitis leaves his locker key to the next person to use his locker.

Brad Hamel leaves to find bigger and better gyms to decorate with pink paper.

George Hastings leaves his pencil to whomever can handle it.

Nancy Hayes leaves the Future Teachers Club to Mary Ann Trommer.

John Hinckley leaves $1.75 to Fat Cat and the Colonel for a haircut.

Carolyn Hopkins leaves all her unfinished homework to anyone who can catch up on it.

Jacqueline Kamm leaves without Lindi.

Roman Karnasiewicz leaves to Jimmy Horanzy a book entitled "How to Succeed in School Without Really Trying".

Walter Karnasiewicz leaves Tom Mandirola to bother Miss Schramm.

Cheryl Karp leaves two crucible covers, five test tubes, one glass spoon, a bottle of acid and Mr. Walat's nerves shattered to pieces in Chemistry Lab.

Marilyn Kope leaves her ability to skip to anyone who can live up to it.

James Kopcinski leaves his saxophone in as many pieces as he can break it into, to Mr. Tanguay.

CLASS WILL

Keith Kramp leaves his seats in his classes to the seniors to be and may heaven help them.

Sheila LaForge leaves her shoes, size 5½, to anyone who can fit into them.

Ellen Lanati leaves cheering for the Windsor Locks basketball team.

Cecily Leel leaves to be with Billy.

Peter Letendre leaves the High School Band to anyone who wants it.

Barry Lloyd leaves one year late!

Dorian Love leaves her quiet manner to a noisy sophomore with the same last name.

Jonathan Lyman leaves Missy, but only for as long as he has to.

Chester Madey leaves his hula-hoop to anyone who wants it.

Raye Mandirola leaves most of his nose to Richy Favreau for good use.

Arthur Merrell leaves all his bubble gum to the Varsity Basketball team.

Richard Miarecki leaves with his distinctive laugh echoing in the halls.

Russell Mills leaves Miss Greeley and her X and Y period study halls to Alfred Alzak.

Carolyn Mnich leaves still looking for a tall, dark, and handsome hunk.

Howard Orr leaves three sophomore girls without a ride to school.

Justine Parsons leaves her post to Gruesome.

Brian Phelps leaves his Beatle hairdo to Mr. Tanguay.

William Phillips leaves all his good marks in Mr. Bryant's Class to Corky Glynn.

Shirley Piejko leaves her newspaper work to Dorothy Kilgallen.

Susan Prekop finally leaves.

Dorann Rapport leaves with Markie.

Linda Realini leaves Mr. Walat with no one to tell him when he is wrong.

Grace Rising leaves still Rising.

Cyndy Roberts leaves her blonde hair to anyone who has parents that will take it better than hers did.

Mary Rogalla leaves giving Mr. Walat peace and no more interruptions in his classes.

Jo Linda Romano leaves no taller than when she came.

Bruce Root leaves his curly hair to Mr. Tanguay.

Mark Rowell leaves a phenomenal record of fouls in soccer and basketball.

Paul Russell leaves early to get his car started.

James Samsel leaves his score book to anyone who can figure it out.

Hugh Scott leaves all his homework to anyone who has time to do it.

Lloyd Shibles leaves Mr. Ouillette his barbells.

Lee Simon leaves his hook shot to anyone brave enough to use it.

David Slasinski leaves his Future, at Suffield High for another year of schooling.

Connie Slater leaves the unused mistletoe in Physics Lab to Mr. Walat and Mr. Regalbuti in the hope that some Junior girl will have better luck with it next year.

Sally Ann Smith leaves Miss Klem's Book of passes for next year's Office Practice and Business Machine classes.

Wallis Sturtevant leaves his sick jokes to Dennis Klaus.

George Tower leaves his open book tests to anyone else who can get away with it.

Pat Valinskus leaves her chair in the office to Eileen Henesey.

Danny Viets leaves his wooden door stops to the thief who stole them.

Pam Washburn leaves her post in the Junior High to anyone who can take it.

Wayne Waterman leaves Lance Comfort's pants (Lance Pants) to anyone who can fit into them.

Carol Wezowicz leaves the Reader's Reflection art room to anybody who can turn around in it.

Darlene Williams leaves the school and its headaches to her younger sister.

Loretta Woods leaves her old bottle of Lady Clairol to Carol Liss.

Frank Zera leaves Mr. Ouillette to whomever can handle the problem.

Pat Zmitruk leaves her tired eyes from Mr. Regalbuti's assignments.

OUR PROM . . .

Laurie
"Our Queen"

"Let's go this way!"

THE GRAND MARCH

"Left, right, left . . ."

Young, fair, and debonair.

HAWAIIAN SUNSET

Come right this way!

A lovely way to spend an evening.

A shrine and our "Tiki".

Pink paper, palms, and a pool combined to make a memorable occasion.

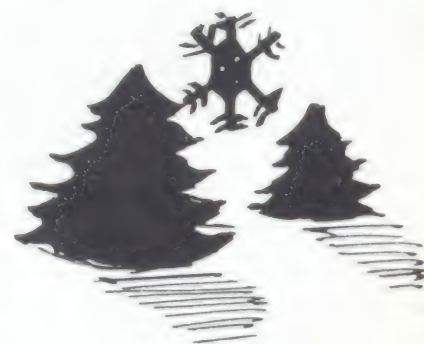

Time out for a rest!

IN THE MOOD OF WINTERTIME

Raye crowns Cess "Our Queen".

Cess and Billy dance.

We entered across a bridge . . .

The band played . . .

And we danced.

IN MEMORIAM

We pause
Amid our busy lives
To mourn his death.
He gave
To his beloved land
All that he could
His gift
By nature was supreme;
It was his life.
We hope
That his untimely death
Was not in vain.
We pray
The flame above his grave
May light the world.
And that
His now immortal strength
May free all men.

— Jo Linda Romano
